Mind the Road. Mind your Mind.

Are you a distracted driver? Circle the answer that best applies to you.

While driving, how often do you...

1. Forget to adjust the mirrors and seats, select entertainment options and other controls, or find the lights and turn signal before driving off?
   - Never
   - Sometimes
   - Frequently

2. Focus attention on passengers, especially when they are arguing or being unruly, rather than concentrate on the task of driving?
   - Never
   - Sometimes
   - Frequently

3. Eat food or drink beverages?
   - Never
   - Sometimes
   - Frequently

4. Use a cell phone to conduct serious business or deal with complicated family issues?
   - Never
   - Sometimes
   - Frequently

5. Change the radio, CD, or tape while driving?
   - Never
   - Sometimes
   - Frequently

6. Shave, put on make up, or attend to other personal grooming tasks?
   - Never
   - Sometimes
   - Frequently

7. Carry pets, plants, loose objects or cargo, or other miscellaneous items in your car?
   - Never
   - Sometimes
   - Frequently

8. Read a road map, newspaper, or work report?
   - Never
   - Sometimes
   - Frequently

9. Prepare for an upcoming business meeting?
   - Never
   - Sometimes
   - Frequently

10. Write notes to remind yourself of tasks you need to get done?
    - Never
    - Sometimes
    - Frequently

Your Score – give yourself: If You Scored:

3 points for each Never
2 points for each Sometimes
0 points for each Frequently

25 - 30 = Great job!
15 - 25 = Room for improvement
0 - 15 = At risk

Reprinted by permission from AAA Foundation for Traffic Safety and AAA of Northern California. (Copyright 2006)